Dear Valued Customer,

Subject: Introducing Astraglass Innovations Inc. - Our New Brand Name

We are excited to announce a significant milestone in the evolution of our company as we unveil our new brand name: Astraglass Innovations Inc.

The new brand name is the result of the merger of two entities, AGC Products Inc., doing business as Andrews Glass & Quark Glass LLC. This change reflects our commitment to innovation, customer-centric solutions, and advancing the field of scientific glassware.

Why Astraglass Innovations?

The name "Astraglass" represents our forward-thinking mindset and our vision of shaping the future of scientific glassware. It combines "Astra," derived from the Latin word for "star," symbolizing exploration, with "glass" as a testament to our expertise in the field. We firmly believe that glass is a vital component in unlocking the mysteries of the universe, and our new name reflects our commitment to that cause.
